

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1904.

MRS. MUNCEY AT HER DAUGHTER'S

Missing Witness in the Rice Case.

Says She Understood She Would Not Be Wanted
Till Saturday.

Her Absence Resulted in the Discharge of the Prisoner on Trial for Murder.

WITHIN two hours after John Rice was discharged for his alleged complicity in the murder of Fred Beutler, Mrs. Emily Muncey, the witness whose absence resulted in the summary release of the defendant, was found at the home of her daughter and taken to the courtroom.

Mrs. Muncey, it was alleged, had heard several conversations between Rice and her husband which corroborated the latter's confession and tended to connect the former with the murder. When she was called to the stand and failed to respond the prosecution was helpless. A deputy sheriff went to the house on Third South where the woman had been rooming, but could get no trace of her. When he made his report it was intimated by the State that she had been induced to keep away by the defense. The attorney for the defense hotly denied the insinuation. The fact that she was not there was, however, in the opinion of the court, enough to warrant the discharge of the prisoner.

In the meantime Deputy Sheriff Andrew Smith had gone to the home of Mrs. Muncey's daughter, Mrs. Mattess, on Eighth street, and there found the missing witness. The old lady was very much surprised when the bench warrant was served.

"I had no intention of hiding," she declared. "I was told that I would not be wanted before Saturday morning, and I thought I would spend the afternoon with my daughter. I left word that I could be found here if they called for me."

Mr. Smith took the woman before Judge Morse, to whom she repeated her explanation. Judge Morse mildly censured her for her negligence and permitted her to go.

In almost any State but Utah the confession of Muncey would have told heavily against Rice, but the State statute requires that the guilt of a defendant in a criminal action must be proved independently of the testimony of an accomplice, the latter being accepted only as corroborative. There is nothing which prevents the using of Muncey's admissions to convict him, but there is no disposition on the part of the District Attorney to carry the matter further, and the Beutler case will be relegated to oblivion.

Court Notes.

By a quit-claim deed recorded yesterday the George M. Scott building on Main street was conveyed by the Str-vell-Paterson Hardware company to L. H. Farnsworth, $10,000 being named as the consideration. At the same time the hardware company assigned to Mr. Farnsworth the option given to the Salisbury company on the building on May 22.

Hester S. Hardy and Susanah E.
Hovey have petitioned the Probate court to appoint Owen S. Hardy administrator of the estate of Harriett A.
Hardy, deceased, which consists of a credit for $500 due from the Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company.

GOLF LINKS NOW IN BEST ORDER

Players Break Records and Some Very Fine Contests Are Noted.

THE golf course at the Country club is now in the best condition. The greens have been slightly remodeled and rolled so that they are perfectly true. The weeds on the open courts have been kept very low by a flock of 500 sheep, which have not only cleared the ground of every vestige of herbage, but flattened the loose soil to a nicety.

This enables the golfers to proceed with little hindrance and generally affords such boys as are productive of long iron or brassie shots.

As a result of these most favorable conditions the golfers are making better records than ever before.

Frank T. McGurkin recently broke the course record for eighteen holes. Boy's score is 78, but Mr. McGurkin by steady field playing and accurate approach shots made the double circuit in seventy-four strokes.

The most important golf contest at the club during the past week was the match between Arthur W. Copp and Fred T.
McGurkin. In the first day's play Mr.
McGurkin gained what was supposed to be an insurmountable lead, but by long drives and steady approach work Mr.
Copp won out. Both players are entitled to great credit for their work. Mr. Copp for his remarkable recovery in the face of defeat, and Mr. McGurkin for his consistent work throughout the entire contest. The lady members of the club participated in a game of clock golf yesterday afternoon.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors Joseph Jensen was elected golf instructor and club repur for the coming season. He is an ex-caddy of several years' experience. Two years ago he captured second place in the caddy's tournament, in which there were some twenty-five competitors.

RACING MEN PLAN FOR MEET ON FOURTH

Outside of hard work there will be little doing among the local horse-racing fraternity until the Fourth of July. The lovers of the sport were well satisfied with Friday's meet, and are anxiously awaiting another.

The defeat of Angle Durysen came like a crash of lightning to her owner, Dr.
Humbelbaugh, who has intended entering her in the Colorado tournament. It was given out yesterday that both he and Ezra Thompson, who had planned to go along with his fast trotter, Robert L., have given up the trip. E. H. Thompson will probably go, and take along a number of his fastest horses. Osmond, Emma Foote, Tordin and a green pacer Evans McGregor, will probably make up his stable.

G. W. Robinson returned to town in the early part of last week from California, where he has been indulging in the racing business for the last seven months.

He brings along a speedy little running mare—Gelsia Bird. He has been racing her continually with the coast tracks with great success, but has decided to give her a rest until next fall, and it is doubtful if she will make her appearance here until the opening of the fair. Her best time on the Dawson course was 1:09 1/5. She is a four-year-old, and in the opinion of her owners has a splendid chance for development. Mr. Robinson intends to take hold of his old standby, Julia A., and get her in shape for the Fourth of July meet. She has not yet made her appearance on the local track this season, but last year she was a great favorite, winning most of the races in which she was entered.

Miss Williams, a new racer recently brought from Colorado by Tom McCoy, will make things lively for some of the former winners in the next meet. She is a strong and steady racer and seldom fails to respond in a crisis. Her time is 2:09 1/2.

NOTES OF INTEREST FROM SAUCER TRACK

Continually increasing is the bicycle camp at the saucer. Every day brings one or two new riders reputed far and wide for their speed ability. Yesterday afternoon Schepps and Orlando Stevens dropped into town, but a message from McFarland was waiting for Schepps and he will go straight to Valsburg. Stevens, however, will remain at the saucer for the summer, and during that time he hopes to lower the colors of the saucer.
To accomplish this task he will have to go some for nothing short of a new world's record will accomplish his feat.

Samuelson is riding better than ever, and his work shows the result of long and faithful training. Many of the world-beaters who came here expecting some easy picking have been absolutely dumfounded by his marvelous work. They declare that he could hold his own with Frank Kramer and defeat Iver Lawson.

Samuelson is continually breaking records established by Kramer, and has unquestionably established a just claim to the world's unpaired championship. In the competition races he is likewise showing four firsts in the open and handicap races, second, two for third and one for fourth, the number of points won during this season by the professional riders in open and handicap races follows: W. E. Samuelson, 29; G. H. Collett, 7; Saxon Williams, 7; Frank Hoffman, 6; Eddie Smith, 5; Hardy Downing, 4; J. B. Bowler, 2; Carl Redman, 1; Emil Agraz, 1; Joe Rayborn, 1; E. B. Hengren, 1; Fred Sherman, 1; S. A. Ellwood, 1; T. D. Morgan, 1.
Next week the local public will be privileged to witness some of the most spectacular and heated contests ever seen in this city. In the three-mile professional race, which will be run next Tuesday night, twenty riders will be on the track at the same time. There will be no qualification heats and consequently all the riders will be fresh and full of ginger. Twenty amateurs will start in the five-mile lap race, but how many will finish remains to be seen. To say the least, some high dives and circus tumbling is assured. The race for blood will be between Collett and Hopper. One-mile heats will be run and the winner of the best two out of three will receive the $50 bag. During the interim between the various events, G. E. Grey will do some exhibition bicycle stunts.

He is a local boy and made his debut at the Salt Lake Theater during the Elks' recent performance.
